Section 8.1: Policy Scope

This policy applies to confirmed employees whose performance or health prevents them meeting the requirements of their role. It is not a disciplinary process — conduct is dealt with under HC-PC-006. Performance during probation is dealt with under HC-PC-003.

Section 8.2: Medical Capability Review

Where an employee has exhausted the 90-day sick leave entitlement within a rolling 12-month period (HC-PC-002 §2.5.2, HC-PC-007 §7.5), the Company may commence a medical capability review.

The review considers occupational health advice, whether reasonable adjustments would enable a return, and whether redeployment is available. Dismissal on medical capability grounds is a last resort and carries full contractual notice.

An employee under medical capability review continues to accrue annual leave (HC-PC-001 §1.3.2) and is not eligible for remote working while the review is open (HC-PC-004 §4.2.1).

Section 8.3: Performance Improvement

An employee rated 2 or below on the scale at HC-PC-007 §7.8 is placed on a performance improvement plan of up to 3 months, with documented objectives and support. An employee on a performance improvement plan is not eligible for remote working (HC-PC-004 §4.2.1).

Section 8.4: Right of Appeal

A capability outcome may be appealed within 10 working days under HC-PC-009 §9.2.
